Kenneth Kearney is the founder and president of The Kearney Realty & Development Group, a diversified real estate development and property management firm based in Carmel, New York.

Mr. Kearney's nearly twenty-three years in real estate development includes many accomplishments of completed and successful projects located throughout the Hudson Valley in New York State. To date KRDG has built commercial and residential projects valued at more than $250 million and is currently involved with several projects at various stages of development.

Known by friends and associates as "a businessman with a big heart," Mr. Kearney brings experience, tenacity, a strong work ethic, and solid professional relationships to any project he undertakes. He has been recognized by many for achievements in developing successful projects.

KRDG has been recognized as a regional leader in its field for both innovation and quality. In 2014, KRDG committed to requiring all future buildings be LEED certified. Since 2002, The KRDG has successfully developed over 1300 units in the Hudson Valley region that include senior, workforce, veteran, supportive, market-rate, middle income, and artist housing.

Some notable and successful projects in Somers include:

- Hidden Meadow Project in the Town of Somers, NY is under development for 40-market for sale townhomes and 8-affordable for sale townhomes.
- Crossroads at Baldwin Place, located in Somers, NY contains 64 units which includes senior and workforce housing.
- The Mews at Baldwin Place

In Kenneth's free time he is a board member on two non-for-profit organizations, Patterns for Progress and Hudson Valley Community Foundations. Kenneth and his family are involved in numerous philanthropic ventures in the areas in which he works. A native of Mahopac, Kenneth and his wife Jean, continue to reside there.
